Grow the vegetables,
raise the sale price,
and make a fortune!

For personal use only

In Vegetable Stock, each card has three icons of 1 to 5 vegetables. Players take turns to choose a card for their harvest pile; the card not chosen determines which vegetable's price goes up. If the price goes over 6, it drops 1 and the cycle begins again. After 6 rounds, players score by multiply the amount of each vegetable harvested with the final price of that vegetable. The player with the highest score wins!

This is a rethemed version of Vegetable Stock—with game types rather than vegetables. Each round you will draft cards until there is only one card left on the table; this increases the market price of the non-chosen game type. The value of the game cards in your hand will increase gradually, but the unchosen card will decrease the popularity of the types of games! When the popularity hits 0, the Popularity card will be flipped to the other side where the game type suddenly becomes super hot (value = 7)!
