THE DECKBUILDING GAME

ALTERED FATES

A Story Mode Campaign

By Ali Karar

Star Wars: Altered fate – is a story mode campaign for the deckbuilding game. This contains 10 missions, set in a familiar yet slightly variant universe of star wars... where things slightly played out differently. Thus the fates will change. This is a 1v1 game, where one player remains Empire and other as Rebellion throughout the campaign. Your victory and losses will change the course of game as well.

STARTING SCROLL

In an alternate galaxy far far away... 1 year before the battle of Yavin... The oppressive Empire forces rule with an iron fist under the command of Emperor. His right hand is his apprentice known only as "Nightwalker". After the clone wars, Emperor cunningly plotted to eliminate all remaining Jedi. Now he rules with Nightwalker as the most powerful force users, uncontested in the galaxy.

A brave alliance of underground freedom fighters is becoming ready to challenge the tyranny and oppression of the awesome GALACTIC EMPIRE. Their main base of operation has been formed on Yavin 4, with key members from Imperial forces themselves including Princess Leia. They have started gathering power and doing calculated strikes at Empire forces to push them back on Outer rim planets.

#1: ATTACK AT MAKO-TA

"Why are you doing this?". "It is what you deserve". "But but...", a light saber beamed open and it drove it through the prisoner's shoulder. The prisoner yelled in pain and screamed, "Please stop. I AM YOUR MOTHER!"

Leia woke up from the nightmare all sweaty and confused. What kind of dream had she just witnessed. Was she the holder of the light saber? And what about the prisoner woman, was she... A knock on the door stopped her chain of thoughts and C-3PO, the protocol droid walked in and exclaimed, "Sorry to wake you princess Leia, but there is an urgent message and they are calling you in the command wing".

Leia wore her uniform and went to the command wing where only group of high officials stood, loyal to the rebellion. Once the door was closed behind her she asked what it was about. Major Giza started, "A large contingency of Empire ships". Leia replied, "Do you think it can be taken down?". Giza replied, "Yes. They are on their way to Mako-Ta Space Docks". Leia troubled asked, "Did they locate our Rebel production center?". Giza replied, "I believe so... Our Y-wings were being developed there, as we still couldn't locate a suitable base in hidden from Empire in outer rim for production". Leia, "We should intervene". Giza, "No... that will reveal you... we cannot risk that. You are too crucial for this alliance right now". Leia, "We cannot just sit and do nothing. Have you at least informed the Captain at Mako-ta". Giza, "I wanted to consult with you to know how to approach this first".

Leia made a holo-call with leaders at Mako-ta, "I know a mass evacuation might not be possible so quickly, we will lose all our ship building capabilities. So, instead I am going to give you a challenge.... Plan for the defense. We know they are coming... so we have an upper hand and can create a trap for them, every capable pilot should take a ship and go out and setup an ambush before they reach Mako-Ta. I have asked other rebel forces in the vicinity to provide support. May the force be with you all".

MISSION VARIANT

*Ignore base abilities mentioned on base cards.
Play up to 3 bases destruction.*

SEED CARDS: 1 tie-fighter (COST 1) + 1 Y-wing (COST 1).

Remove 1 tie-fighter card (COST 1), permanently from the deck.

Remove 1 Y-wing (COST 1), permanently from the deck.

#2: KYBER TRAIL

Admiral Piett bumped his fist against the screen as he made his escape from the last encounter. He was really hopeful that he could catch the rebels in the act.

His subordinate Captain Holt came and saluted him and asked, "Do you still want us to peruse Baze Malbus?". Piett replied angrily, "Of course! I know Nightwalker or Emperor will start considering me as their top Admiral if I unravel this. So, I cannot reveal it to them until I have proof myself". Holt questioned, "Are you sure Baze Malbus smuggled Kyber crystals through Mako-Ta base?". Piett replied, "I am pretty sure, but I cannot confirm as I don't know why. There have been no Jedi in long time. I am not sure who would have asked Baze Malbus to smuggle Kyber crystals unless it was for making new light sabers. That is the most suspicious thing. That is why I want to get to the bottom of this before I report it back to Nightwalker".

Holt proposed, "I can send a small team undercover to follow Baze. He would have gone from Mako-Ta base by now. So, no need to go there again. Our under-cover team will follow and find Baze to see where he takes the crystals". Piett nodded, "Yes but also we have to continue to suppress the rebels in general. Otherwise Nightwalker will know we are up to something else and I don't want to come into its gaze just yet. That creature gives me the shivers".

Holt smirked, saluted and then left the office.

MISSION VARIANT

Capital ships can also attack ground targets, which means they can also be used for bounty hunting. (Play up to 3 bases only)

SEED: Admiral Piett (COST 2) + Baze Malbus (COST 2)

Remove Admiral Piett (COST 2) card from the game permanently.

EMPIRE VICTORY

Baze Malbus, astonished, turned back and gunned down two troopers as they rushed in. He jumped behind the table and opened his chain gun and took out 10 or more troopers. He kept taking hits as well but didn't back-off, a final shot to his head by Admiral Piett finally brought down the brave warrior. He gave no chance of interrogation to them. When they checked his bags, Kyber crystals were not there anymore.

Remove Baze Malbus (COST 2) card from the game permanently.

#3: A HIJACKING

“Empire is getting ready with some super power weapon and Nightwalker is protecting it herself”, exclaimed Cassian. The other leaders of Rebellion faction nodded and said, “These are rumors only, there is no such super-weapon”. Cassian angrily said, “Why don’t you trust me? My sources are true”. Leaders replied, “Your sources have been bunch of ex-prisoners, who did commit real crimes and were put in prison by Empire. There is a difference between rebellion and blind vengeance”. Cassian said, “Then give me a crew and I will get you the proof. There have been too many transport ships hurling material. They will have the information about what they are carrying, where to and why”. Leaders said, “No! that’s too dangerous”.

Cassian frustratingly went back to the corner and sat down. At that time, a holo-call from Princess Leia came to this Rebel cell and the leaders of the base picked up. hologram started saying, “One of our Rebellion transport ship has been captured by Empire and taken hostage. They are going to pass by your sector before they reach Coruscant. If they reach Empire headquarters, then all our friends will be put in prison for treason. This cannot happen. We need you to intercept that ship and free it”. The Leaders took the trajectory info and then terminated the call.

Cassian eyes twinkled and said, “Let me lead the mission. Instead of blowing the Empire ship escorting our Rebel cruiser, what if I hijack it? Then the rebel ship will be free and I will be able to bring that ship back here and get it stripped down for information on the super-weapon that I am sure of. Two birds with one stone”. Leaders nodded in agreement.

MISSION VARIANT

If any capital ships are revealed for galaxy row, add them to end of galaxy row. At end of each turn, move them one space towards market deck. If nobody has bought it by last place then it moves to bottom of market deck.

From now on, for all future missions, play upto 4 bases destruction.

SEED: GOZANTI CRUISER (COST 3) + REBEL TRANSPORT (COST 2)

BASES: Default + Kafrene (Empire) + Jedha (Rebels)

POST MISSION

The Empire ship was a Gozanti-class cruiser escorting the Rebel transport ship. Outgunned Rebel ship had to follow orders. The battle had disabled the two tie-fighters protecting the Gozanti cruiser already.

REBEL VICTORY

Cassian was able to infiltrate and take command of the Empire ship. And maneuver it back to Rebel base for stripping for information.

Remove a GOZANTI CRUISER (COST 3) card from the deck permanently.

EMPIRE VICTORY

The Gozanti cruiser didn’t give up the fight. It blast out torpedoes, as a last resort, towards the defenseless rebel transport ship. Cassian was able to get aboard it and hijack it before it could jump to hyperspace but the Rebel ship was destroyed.

Remove a REBEL TRANSPORT (COST 2) card from the deck permanently.

#4: A DISTURBANCE IN FORCE

The howling wind was breaking the silence of night. Rainstorm started to fall in the gloomy streets as the dwellers took shelter in their homes and turned down the lights on the sight outside. From a sole tie-fighter, a sith in a black cloak walked out with its red metallic helmet covered in thorns and spikes. Her light saber was the only source of light making her look more menace. The light saber tip crawled on the path like a whip or a red glowing snake sniffing out its prey.

Nightwalker walked towards the end of the street where it stopped in front of a small dwelling. She whipped the door with her lightsaber and the door cut down in two. Inside were two Jawas scared, who hugged on to each other. Nightwalker walked in and in her robotic voice asked, "The kyber crystals, you received them from a man named Baze Malbus, who did he want them delivered to". Jawas trembled and didn't reply, they just whimpered in front of her. Nightwalker waited, then turned off her lightsaber. One of the Jawa's composed himself on that and walked closer and in his own language said, "We don't know of any such thing. We are loyal to the galactic Empire". Nightwalker put her hand with lightsaber on its chest and then said, "I understand..."... then she turned on the light saber. It passed through its chest and the body slid down as it passed through the saber. Nightwalker turned it off again and said, "... but I don't believe you. I hope you have a more truthful answer for me", as she looked towards the other Jawa.

After few minutes, Nightwalker walked out of the dwelling. She walked back to her ship and took off. Over the coms she talked to Tarkin, "Tarkin! I have the information I needed, you have my permission to destroy this planet".

Admiral Tarkin Smiled, it was time for his secret weapon to test in the open, "Power the DeathStar". Empire's secret weapon was a ship like a mini planet itself. And it was capable of destroying whole planets.

MISSION VARIANT

Place 1 JAWA SCAVENGER (COST 1) card in galaxy row, now fill remaining market. Check the current score of Dark vs Light in Logbook. The player who has the lower score as of now, starts the game.

BASES: Default + Death Star (Empire) + Alderaan (Rebel)

POST MISSION

Moff Tarkin smiled as the death star laser was fully energized. The coordinates were set and he said, "Fire".

REBEL VICTORY

The laser went to Despayre, the planet which was used to build the structure of DeathStar itself. It became its first victim and the testing was complete. But Rebels became aware also that such a weapon now existed.

EMPIRE VICTORY

The laser went to Alderaan, the home planet of Princess Leia. In moments the whole planet was destroyed with all its inhabitants. Empire always had doubts about Leia being involved with Rebellion, and this would be the perfect way to anger her out of her hiding.

#5: ROUGE ONE

Cassian looked at Jyn Erso and asked, “Are you ready?”. Jyn replied, “Yes! This crew of Rogue One is ready to support you”. Cassian looked around and said, “This is a small covert mission. We must not forget we are here to avenge for all those lives lost by Empire’s super-weapon: DeathStar. Based on the ship protocols we stole from the Gozanti Cruiser, we will be able to enter the shield of planet Scariff”.

Jyn added, “My father was forced to build the designs for Death Star but he also built a flaw in it. So, its not indestructible. Sorry before I could get this information from my father, a Bounty hunter: Boba Fett killed him. So, we must get the blueprints of Death Star from the Imperial base in Scariff”. Cassian clicked a button on the screen and picture of Boba Fett also came up on the presentation display, “Sadly the notorious Boba Fett, was last seen flying back to Scariff as well, so be careful”.

After the briefing, Cassian went to Jyn’s quarter to have a private discussion, “Are you alright?”. Jyn tucked in her Model 44 blaster pistol in her belt holster and nodded, “Yes! Why won’t I be”. Cassian replied, “I saw when Boba Fett name was mentioned, your hands trembled. Please remember there is too much at stake here than vengeance”. Jyn was left speechless.

The ship’s speaker announced, “Approaching scariff’s shield. This is it, everyone... take position”. Cassian buttoned the top collar of his Imperial guard uniform and put on his hat. Jyn whispered, “I know... don’t worry mission takes first priority”. Cassian smiled and went back to cockpit.

MISSION VARIANT

Any player can give 2 Force to bounty hunt (remove) a card from galaxy row on start of turn.

From now on for all future games, you can pay off /bounty hunt neutral cards as well by paying its price. It is players choice to add it in their deck or discard it to exile it.

SEED: BOBA FETT (COST 5) + CASSIAN (COST 5)

BASES: Default + Rodia (Empire) + Yavin 4 (Rebel)

POST MISSION

Cassian and Jyn had the Death Star design files but no way to escape through. Death Star loomed over it as it energized itself to destroy Scariff. Empire would prefer to destroy their own planet than let its secrets be leaked. As they were about to escape on the ship, Boba Fett flew down on their ship.

REBEL VICTORY

Jyn jumped out started shooting at Boba. Boba fired a rocket at her, and she hid behind the crates. Boba turned towards Cassian to shoot him, but Jyn jumped over the crates through flames and shot his rocket jet pack fuel line. Boba erratically flew around out of control. Jyn had the chance now to take revenge... but she turned back and rushed inside and told Cassian to fly away, just moments before whole planet was destroyed.

Remove BOBA FETT (COST 5) card permanently.

EMPIRE VICTORY

Jyn signaled Cassian to start the upload. Cassian knew they were now not gonna make it out of here. So, only chance was to upload the data to rebel ship in atmosphere already. Jyn kept Boba busy. Moments before planet was destroyed the data upload got completed.

Remove CASSIAN (COST 5) card permanently.

#6: BATTLE OF HOTH

Nightwalker robotic voice came in comms, "I want that data retrieved before they decrypt it". Moff Tarkin said, "Believe me Nightwalker, Death Star safety is my priority too. Leaking of those plans in hands of rebel scum is not ideal. But we have traced the signal to the rebel base back on Hoth. We will surely capture them". Nightwalker replied, "What about Leia?". Tarkin replied, "Confirmed! she is at the base".

AT-AT walkers marched through the knee-deep snow towards the rebel base. A hailstorm of fire started firing on rebel alliance shield generators which still protected the main base.

Rebel forces sent their U-wings to fight off the AT-AT and slow down their progress.

Darth Vader hologram appeared in Nightwalker ship, "Is she there?". Nightwalker nodded and said, "Yes my forces have confirmed that Leia is still in Hoth. Rebels cannot escape us now". Vader in a command tone said, "Remember I want Leia captured alive. You know she is your...". Nightwalker gritted her teeth and cut him off, "As you wish... master". And the communication disconnected.

Moff Tarkin's call came next. He reported, "The AT-AT are taking a hit, they are tripping them down by tying up their legs. We could really use your support here". Nightwalker angrily said, "We have a whole galaxy to conquest not just one base. I trust you to take care of it". Moff Tarkin replied, "Don't worry, we will get it done. Its just if we increase the firepower we might end up destroying everyone... including Rebel leader Leia". Nightwalker yelled, "Do I look I care... if she gets blown up then do it. She must not escape. Capture her, and if not possible then I would be happy for a dead body".

MISSION VARIANT

From now on and for all future missions play for 5 bases instead of 4.

SEED: AT-AT (COST 6)

BASES: Default + Ord Mantell (Empire) + Bespin (Rebel)

POST MISSION

The AT-ATs took heavy losses, but on other hand the shield generators of Rebels were down also.

REBEL VICTORY

Skeletons of AT-AT cluttered around the base. Rebels were safe but now the weakened base was undefendable. They would live another day to fight. Leia stayed back to ensure all rebels escaped safely. But when she was finally ready to fly out herself, a lightsaber came flying and hit the engine of the ship and a voice came, "You are not going anywhere".

Remove AT-AT (COST 6) card permanently.

EMPIRE VICTORY

AT-ATs broke through the shields and heavy firing caused destruction of rebel base rapidly. Leia thought that she could give rebels a chance to escape if she would surrender herself. She contacted Empire to announce she was flying to Moff Tarkin's ship to surrender if Empire ceases fire. Moff agreed. As soon as Leia was captured. Moff signaled and Death Star destroyed the whole planet Hoth.

Remove HOTH (base) card permanently.

#7: THE RESCUE

Luke yelled, "We need to rescue Leia at all cost. She is the back bone of this rebellion. With her captured, the rebels have lost their morale". Admiral Akbar nodded and said, "I agree. But its easier said than done. She has been taken to Empire base at Corellia". Luke sighed and whispered, "Imperial shipyard is there too... there will be too many ships". Then he said loudly, "Call in all X-wing pilots, we will form the biggest armada we can to take on the fight head-on". Akbar said, "Is that wise? Maybe they want us together, so that they can wipe us out in one go". Luke questioned, "Hmmm! You think its what they want?". Akbar replied, "It's a trap".

Luke meditated that night and asked help from the spirits of his Force mentor: Master Yoda. Yoda came to his vision and said, "In great danger Leia is. Hmmm. A disturbance in force I sense. It's not only the forces of dark side, but light side". Luke asked, "What should I do?". Yoda replied, "Less noise, small foots make". Luke said, "I understand". Yoda said, "Hrrmmm. More important thing to take care you have". And then the vision disappeared.

In the morning, Luke came to Akbar and said, "We are going to send a small team of elite X-wing fighters for a covert operation for the rescue. You will lead that mission". Akbar asked, "What about you?". Luke looked at the satchel he carried around his neck which had the coveted kyber crystals he obtained and said, "Someone awaits their inheritance at Dagobah and my duty bounds me there". Then Luke left.

Luke flew to Dagobah, the abandoned Jedi training temple was. He felt a new hope going there. Obi Wan Kenobi had been looking after some younglings there who showed promise. If they were right, they wouldn't be the last Jedi left.

When Luke laded there, he felt something ... off. He went inside and found no younglings in the training center or their chambers. He scrambled around to find Obi Wan, wounded, bleeding and on his last breath... Signs of light saber battle around him. Luke yelled, "Master....". Obi Wan just said, "She took them... Luke!.. I have to tell you something.... About... your mother...", and then he took his last breath and faded away.

MISSION VARIANT

Empire player must play Corellia as their 2nd or 3rd base (their choice). Remove the Leia card from galaxy deck and keep it with Corellia card. As soon as Corellia base is destroyed, Leia card should be shuffled back in top 6 cards of galaxy deck.

SEED: 2 X-wing (COST 3) cards

BASES: Default + Kessel (Empire) + Dagobah (Rebel)

POST MISSION

The Elite X-wing team entered Corellia. The danger was high.

REBEL VICTORY

He found that Leia had used the distraction to make halfway herself and even put timer on self-destruction of the base. They escape before it went off.

Remove CORELLIA Base card from Empire permanently.

EMPIRE VICTORY

The X-wings took heavy losses. They were unable to reach Leia themselves but it provided enough distraction for Leia to escape herself through one of Imperial ships.

Remove 2 X-wing (COST 3) cards permanently.

#8: DEATH OF A STAR

When Luke returned back to base, Leia was already back. They both ran and hugged each other. Leia said, "We need to execute it now... The death star plans have been unlocked... we now know a weakness in its central power generator". Luke was crying at this time. Leia looked at him and asked, "What's the matter brother?". Luke replied, "The children, they are gone". Leia asked, "Rey?", Luke answered, "All!". Leia, "What about master Kenobi?". Luke, "Murdered". He hesitated then said, "There was something he said before he died... something about our mother". Leia was shocked and said, "Few weeks ago I saw a vision of mother... I think. I don't know if its connected". Luke said, "Obi wan might have been the only one who knew about her, so what do we do now?". Leia thought and replied, "There might be another way... a Kel Dor Mystic. He is said to have been tracking histories of force sensitive families. Maybe he knows". Luke nodded, "You speak of the Kel Dor: Segri Do? I am not sure anybody knows where he is. He moves in shadows away from war". Leia said, "There is no place left now away from war. I believe we can locate him with our network spread wide enough. Segri Do will have the answers".

General Akbar walked in at that time and said, "Princess! We are ready with the plan". Leia gave a heavy look to Luke, "Its time then... we must not loose focus on the big prize... the Death star". The rebel generals all gathered in the room as the briefing started and it was explained that the unlocked plans reveal a weakness in the power generator of Death star. If that is blown, then it will be not just disabled but cause a chain reaction and will blow it to pieces; permanently getting rid of this nuisance. Leia questioned, "And how do we reach its power core?". Akbar pointed to hologram, "That's the tricky part... there are these heat tunnel vents but big enough for small craft like X-wing to go. It will be hard to maneuver in it, but if one of our pilots make it they need just one shot once inside the generator room to blow it up". Luke said, "Then lets get on with it. You provide the distraction with the big ships, while a handful of most skill fighters will penetrate the Death Star. May the force be with us all".

MISSION VARIANT

Take the Kel Dor Mystic (Neutral) card from the deck. Check the current score of Dark vs Light in Logbook. Place Kel Dor Mystic card based on below score delta:

- 0 = Place it in galaxy market, Rebels start the game.
- 1 = Place it in player with lower score's discard pile
- 2 or more = After drawing starting hand, shuffle it in remaining cards of player with lower score.

BASES: Default + Mustafar (Empire) + Tatooine (Rebel)

POST MISSION

The X-wing elite pilots were all shot down, Only Luke was left racing through the heat vents. Nightwalker followed him in her Tie Interceptor. Mark the Score in Logbook based on victory of this mission. If Dark is leading read Ending #1. If light is leading or equal then read Ending #2.

ENDING #1

Luke knew he would not reach power core before Nightwalker captures him. So, he fired his torpedo and used his force to guide it through the vent to reach the power core.
Remove Death Star base from the game.

ENDING #2

Luke ship got hit by Nightwalker, there was no chance he would make it to power core. So, he had to give up and escape and live to fight another day.

#9: ALTERING THE FATES

Luke and Leia sat with Segri Do, the Kel Dor mystic as he rummaged through his scrolls to bring out one of them. Segri said, "This one is incomplete...". Luke said, "What do you know of our parentage?". Segri replied, "Oh young Skywalker, my oath prevents me from telling you. I do record history but it is my belief that history can alter the future". Leia said, "Master Segri! With all due respect, history has already happened, how can it impact future". Segri replied, "Not knowing your parentage, you take actions based on your conscious decision, based on your morality. If that history is known, your decisions will vary based on sympathy and affiliation. So, does that not alter the fates?" Luke remained quiet for a while, thinking how to convince the mystic then said, "Master Segri! If I am not wrong your oath is to record history yet withhold for safekeeping of peace in galaxy". Segri nodded. Luke said, "And you do believe our cause against the Empire's atrocities are just, and also for safekeeping the peace". Segri hesitantly nodded. Luke couldn't see his full face due to his oxygen mask but he could sense that Segri had started smiling behind it, as he knew where this was leading. Luke continued, "Then our question will only enforce your oath; because your ultimate aim is not hiding the history but peace in galaxy".

Segri finally nodded and opened the seal on the scroll and said, "As I said in the start... this is still incomplete, as there are things which I couldn't uncover". The scroll was in a language which Luke and Leia couldn't read. Segri started reading and explaining, "You have question about your... mother. Hmmm! She was a chancellor, a politician like you Leia". Leia nodded and said, "My foster parents informed me that much". Segri said, "But what they might not informed you was that she was a force user. So, was your father. Thus their children bore same gift... even stronger. But she was never trained as a Jedi. Due to her political lineage, her tests were hidden from Old Jedi council and thus she lived life as a normal child, never exploring her powers... until she met your father". Luke asked "Who was our father?"

MISSION VARIANT

Separate all the Empire, Rebel and neutral cards from the galaxy deck in three separate decks. Place 2 cards from each deck in galaxy deck. Whenever a card of a certain faction is removed, fill it back from that deck only. If a faction deck is ever empty, then its active player choice that which deck to choose to fill it from.

SEED: Star Destroyer + Millenium Falcon

POST MISSION

Leia laid stuck under the rubble of the destroyed building. Luke and Darth Vader stood face to face, holding sabers in hand. Wreckage of a ship came down like a ball of fire, directly heading to where Leia was. Vader turned his back to Luke and ran to save Leia. Using his force he levitated the whole wreck overhead and pushed it away. Leia saw it and questioned, "Why?". Vader said, "Leia! I am your Father...". Luke found his chance and his lightsaber went through Vader's chest from back at that time before he could hear Vader's words.

REBEL VICTORY

The wreckage of Star Destroyer laid next to the horrible scene...

Remove "Star Destroyer" from the game.

EMPIRE VICTORY

The wreckage of Millenium Falcon laid next to the horrible scene...

Remove "Millenium Falcon" from the game.

#10: ANSWERS

As Luke helped Leia out of the rubble, she ran towards the fallen body of Darth Vader. He was still alive. Leia took off his helmet and saw the deformed face of a man who had no specific reason to lie at this time. She with questioning eyes looked at Sergi Dor who stood afar. He nodded confirming that Vader was their father indeed. Leia asked Vader, "Is our mother alive?". Vader refused and said, "No! she died in child birth. I am sorry that I was not there to help her during that time. I had turned to dark side to help her, but when she needed me most, I was consumed by own darkness and she abandoned me and refused my help".

Sergi Dor walked towards Darth Vader, opened his incomplete scroll and said, "Anakin... if I may call you by that name, My records of your family are incomplete. Will you give me the honor of telling me about the triplets?". Luke and Leia looked surprisingly at each other and then looked at Vader... Anakin... their father. Vader smiled like reminiscing the past and said, "Luke, Leia and Lucia. All separated to keep you safe... from me. But I was able to locate Lucia while she was still young...". Luke questioned, "Where is she now?"

Footsteps approached from behind... They all turned as sound of a lightsaber turned on, "You found her... brother!". Nightwalker stood with her red light saber lit. She took her helmet off, and Leia saw the resemblance. It was like watching herself in the mirror. Lucia... Nightwalker yelled, "This conflict ends today. The one true emperor seeks an end to this war. And that will happen today as you now pay for what you have done to our father".

MISSION VARIANT

Darth Vader card represents Nightwalker in this game. Both players start with a capital ship at start of game. Empire starts with Star Destroyer, Rebels start with Mon-Calamari cruiser. Play up to 6 bases.

SEED: Night walker (Darth vader) + Luke

POST MISSION

General Akbar yelled over Leia's comms, "The emperor is surrounded, we are going in". On the ground Nightwalker stood in front of Luke as he stood wounded with several light saber cuts.

Mark an "X" in logbook and check overall winner based on who has maximum "X". If both players are equal then ultimate winner is player who won this mission. Read victory condition for them.

REBEL VICTORY

Akbar announced, "The emperor has been killed... we won! Empire is no more".

Leia cried and yelled, "Stop you both! Father... is dying". Luke and Lucia looked and Vader was taking his last breaths. Both stopped and came to Vader. Vader said to Lucia, "Don't fight my children. My life is full of regrets since I joined Dark side, I thought it was the love of your mother but it only brought me hurt. Don't let that anger and darkness consume you... forgive. I deserve this Lucia. My dying wish is to see you all united as a famil..y.." and Vader faded away. Lucia cried. Luke and Leia held her hand as she hugged Vader; and found some peace in this.

EMPIRE VICTORY

Akbar announced, "He is not here, emperor has escaped! That slime tricked us again".

Vader laid dead on the floor. Lucia furiously swung her saber around and cut off Luke's hand, as he cried in pain. With another swoop she cut off Luke's other hand as well, "This is what your murderous hand deserves for killing your own father". Leia came rushing in anger carrying Darth Vader saber from behind and in dark anger cut off Lucia's head. Luke watched in horror. Leia with tears and a determined face, threw the comms.
